

Pastoral Care Worker

In a Government School, the PCW is primarily a service of pastoral care for students and their families, who want this support. PCW's are not in the school to evangelise on behalf of a particular faith group. Their role requires them to respect both the secular character of the Government School and the variety of thoughts and beliefs within the school community.

As a Christian presence in the school, the PCW represents and encourages key Christian values, and celebrates the diversity of Christianity.

The PCW is jointly accountable to the Department of Education and Child Development through the School Principal, the Noarlunga Inter-church Council and Schools Ministries Group

Vivonne is employed for 14 hours a week by the Noarlunga Inter-Church Council through the Federal Government's national School Chaplaincy Programme, and with the support of the local Christian Churches.

Vivonne Amoy

Pastoral Care Worker

Vivonne is married to Mark and has two children, Esther, who is a High School Art Teacher and Israel, who is also a qualified teacher now enjoying mentoring.

Helping at her children's primary school with various activities (art and craft classes, excursions, camps, assemblies, sport's carnivals, canteen duties, administration, fund-raising and mentoring), Vivonne has enjoyed helping children grow and develop to reach their potential.

Vivonne's career has spanned from an advertising and graphic design artist, to sales, costume design and construction, theatre producer and muralist.

Over the last 25 years Vivonne and her family have attended 'Coastlands International Christian Centre' and 'Tree of life' where they have been involved in children's ministries, youth groups, creative workshops and theatre productions.

Vivonne is looking forward to meeting all the students and their families so don't be shy - come and introduce yourself!

Vivonne will be at school each Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

Contact Vivonne by phoning the front office 8382 2455 to leave a message or make an appointment.

Vivonne's involvement in the school as the Pastoral Care Worker (PCW) includes:

- working in co-operation with the Principal, School Counsellor, staff and teachers to support the students
- being available to students as a listener, friend and carer
- encouraging and supporting staff
- providing support for families in times of needs
- involvement in camps and excursions
- providing a Christian presence in the school on behalf of the local churches
- organising and supervising lunchtime activities
- being a resource and referral person for students, families and staff
- working with others in the school community to develop services, programmes and strategies that meet the needs of students
- further building the school's key directions to ensure "students feel safe happy and confident within a positive and caring environment."
