

English

Writing - Designing and making books in a range of genres for different purposes - Narrative, non-fiction, procedural. Sentence structure and grammar. Techniques authors use to hold reader's attention.

Spelling using Soundwaves program. Looking at letter sounds and how they are used in words. Exploring spelling rules for changing tense, making plurals and grammar.

Handwriting - Explicit teaching of certain letters

Reading - Activities focussing on comprehension, fluency, literal and implied meaning of texts. Responding to texts and sharing preferences.

Science

Continuing unit on sound. Taught by Nicole Bracken

Technologies

Information Technology - Creating slides with information about a topic of interest. Searching for and selecting information from internet to create slides on Google Slides

2018 Term 4 Learning Overview

Port Noarlunga Primary School

Teacher

Trevor Letcher

Specialist Teachers

Performing Arts: Susie Scott

History: Diana Fullerton

Physical Education/Health: Mike Woolford

Physical Education/Health: Kate Smith & Shannon Clarke

Languages (French): Karen Thorburn

Important Dates

Student Free Day -

Parent teacher interviews -

The Arts

Looking at and producing works in styles of famous artists. Sharing preferences for different styles.
Making book covers.

Mathematics

Using imaths program as a base for Maths
Number and Algebra - Strategies for adding, subtracting, multiplying and dividing numbers. Timestables recall and understandings. Building on mental computation strategies.

Measurement - Telling the time and adding together units of time.

Investigating and measuring length, time, mass, capacity and volume.

Using maps and grid references.

Statistics and Probability - Studying probability and likely and unlikely outcomes.

Data collection and analysis

HASS

Civics and Citizenship - Our place in our local environment. Where in the local community do students visit (eg, parks, shops) and where do they attend clubs etc (eg, scouts, sports clubs). How do we contribute and make decisions as a member of the class.

Geography - How can we contribute and take care of our environment?

Buddy Class

Listening to reading sight words and books.
Practising Christmas concert item. Making and sharing food.